

Dear Sir or Madam,I have been using X M radio since last October. I was thrilled to discover that they were offering local traffic and weather. It is a great assist during the morning and evening commute to have a running commentary on the traffic problems in the DFW metroplex. This service is much better than any of the local stations.

Please do not allow this useful service to be discontinued.

Robert D. SMith